CROWDVAC Healthcare – F.I.T. Core Values

Find: Our recruiters are the best in the business at searching out and vetting healthcare positions. Our clients include some of the most respected healthcare facilities in the nations. We ensure the work environment and duties for each position closely matches our provider recruit's specifications and preferences.

Insight: Check-in calls and performance reviews with clinical management take place at orientation, and regularly throughout the length of assignment. Post assignment assessments will consist of the client evaluating provider skills and fit, as well as provider's insights into the client's work environment.

Trust: As a healthcare provider you are busy providing patient care and juggling personal, family and work life. Let us be your career partner for finding you best fit healthcare position.

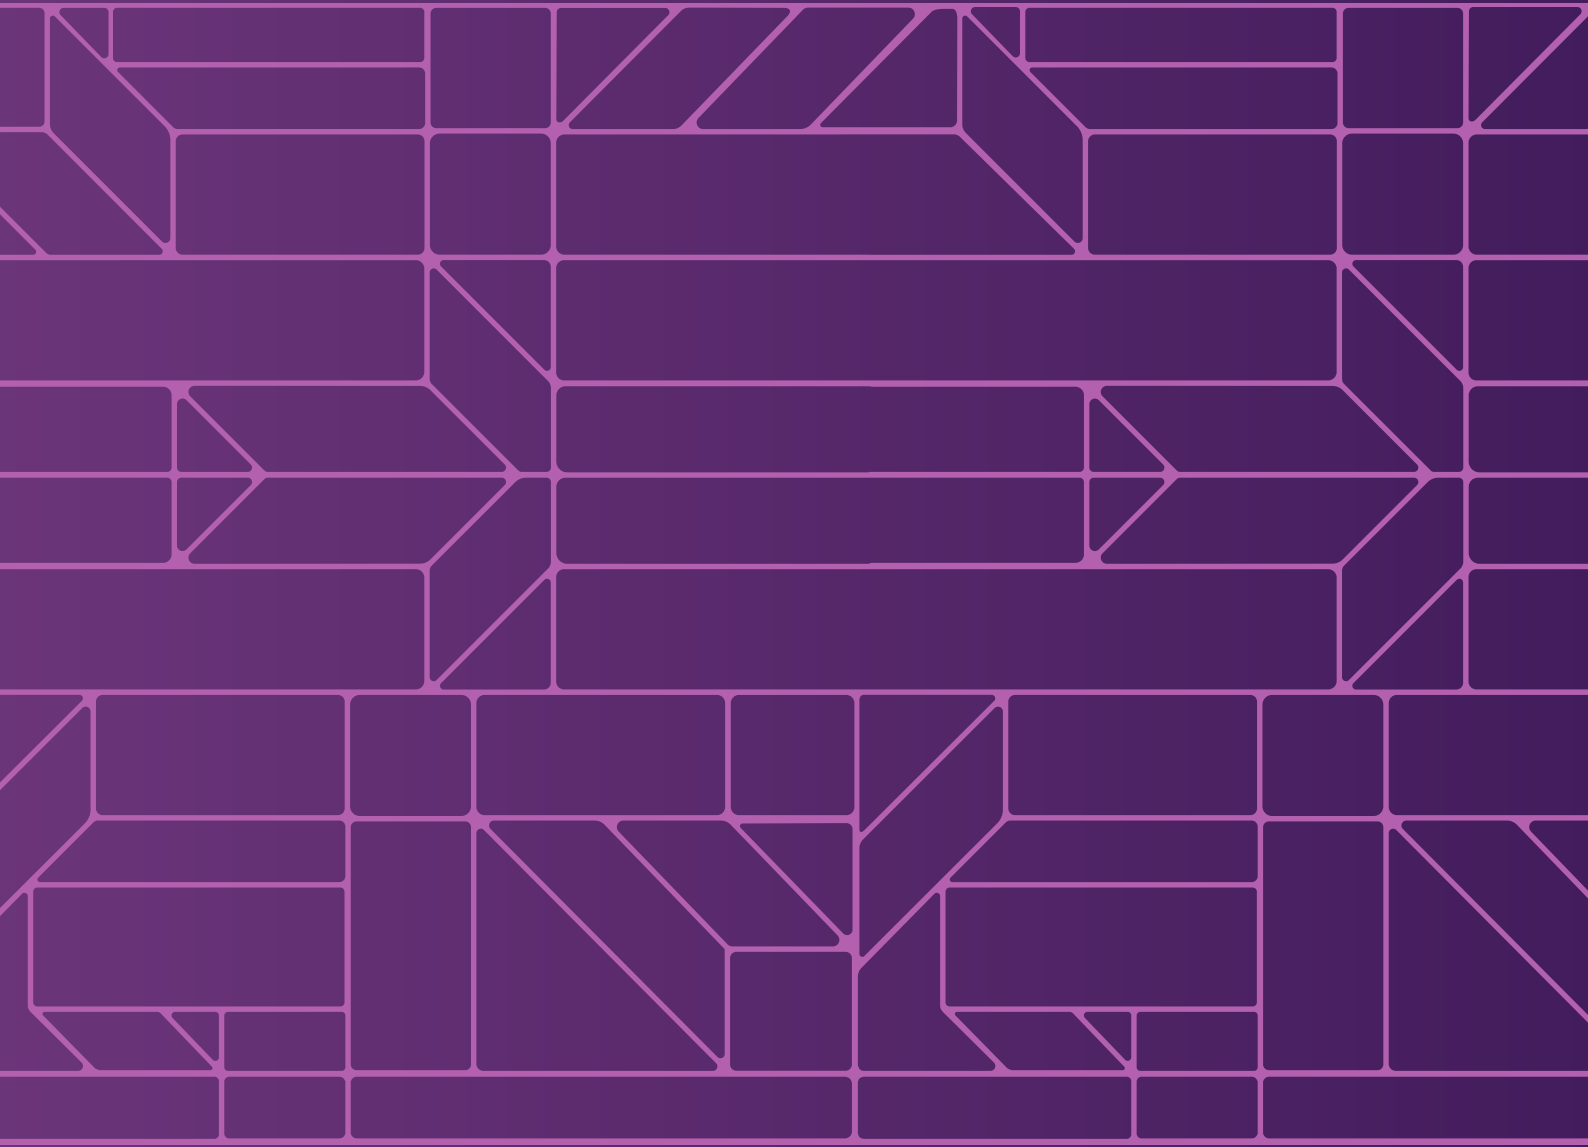

CROWDVAC Healthcare Focus

COVID-19

With the recent outbreak of COVID-19, CROWDVAC has been inspired to shift company focus and resources towards our healthcare division in an effort to aid in combating this pandemic. Our full team is working to assist our healthcare sector clients in staffing critically important health care professionals through the pandemic time and beyond. Partner with Crowdvac to be ready when "non-essential" procedures are reactivated.

Our geographically dispersed and technologically savvy team is working around the clock to place talented healthcare professionals across the nation where they are needed most.
